HUVAFEN DHONIS

A Per AQUUM Retreat

LOCATION

Huvafen Fushi sits in North Malé Atoll of the Maldives. A two hour leisurely ride skimming the Indian Ocean's blue expanses with your Maldivian butler on your very own Dhoni takes you from Malé International Airport to the resort.

THE DHONI CONCEPT

Welcome to the Dhoni. The princess of the Indian Ocean. A traditional Maldivian sailboat, fitted out with indulgent modern luxuries by Huvafen Fushi. The handcrafted Dhonis are offered in partnership with onshore accommodation and can be booked in conjunction with all room types. Head out to sea after a night in your bungalow. Jump ship, or in this case, Dhoni, if you please, when night falls. Or stay offshore, stargazing and dreaming fantasies under the moon, in the waves.

Dolphin spotting – up close from your bedroom. Fish skimming straight into your fully fitted kitchen. Gliding in, above, and below water. The Dhoni. Accommodation that moves with you.

DESIGN

Alabaster sails. A 20-metre long traditional wooden exterior. Fused with the latest technology and contemporary design. Sweeping bows commanding the ocean. And the sunset.

Refined tastes finish the interior. Smeg fridges stock a feast-in-waiting. Sink into Frette linen and a deep sleep in the king-sized bed. With Philippe Starck-added touches to the living room and bathroom. A cutting edge lifestyle on a piece of architecture that's all yours.
